VOL. XXVI, NO. 230 GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1909 TEN CENTS A WEEK

EVERAL STATES WILL ELECT GOVERNORS TODAY

ny States Will Settle Hot Fights, But General Interest Is Centered on New York City.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—ctions will be held tomorrow in ny States and cities throughout country. Three States will elect vernors and full State tickets, mely, Massachusetts, Rhode Island Virginia. New Jersey will elect h branches of the Legislature. nnsylvania will elect a State Treas-r, Auditor-General and Judge of Supreme Court. Nebraska will ct two Justices of the Supreme urt and three University regents. n point of interest and excitement, three municipal campaigns of the at metropolitan cities, New York, ladelphia and San Francisco, far ceed that of the State contests. In ch of these municipal contests the form question is a dominant issue. actically all of the contests are on al issues.

Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts campaign has en short and sharp. Governor Eben Draper, Republican, is seeking re-ection against James H. Vahey, mocrat, who opposed Governor aper in the campaign of last year. e other candidates for Governor e Daniel A. White, Socialist; John Nicholls, Prohibition, and Moritz Ruther, Socialist Labor, and these rties also have candidates for other tate offices. The Independence eague, an important factor in the st three campaigns, did not enter e contest this year.

Rhode Island.

The same candidates for Governor ho opposed each other last year, gain head the ticket this year, Gov. Aran J. Pothier being the Republican nominee and Olney Arnold, the Democratic. The other candidates for Governor are Willis H. White, Prohibition; Frederick Hurst, Socialist, and Richard Holland, Socialist Labor.

New York.

Chief interest in New York has centered in the whirlwind municipal campaign of New York City, which has been one of the bitterest ever held. With three mayoralty candidates in the field—Justice William J. Gaynor, the Democratic and Tammany nominee; Otto T. Bannard, the Republican standard bearer, and William R. Hearst, leading the Civic Alliance—party lines have been shattered to a degree that political managers are guessing at pluralities for the candidates.

The issues are the overthrow of Tammany and an effort of the Republican and Civic Alliance forces to capture control of the board of estimate and apportionment, which will have control of vast outlays of money for subways and other large municipal undertakings.

Mayoralty elections also will be held at Albany, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse and many other up-State points. In the State a full delegation to the lower branch of the State Legislature or Assembly will be chosen.

Pennsylvania.

In Pennsylvania the chief interest is in the battle that is being waged in Philadelphia, where the reform element is endeavoring to break the power of the local Republican organization. The reformers, under the title of William Penn party, have again placed D. Clarence Gibboney, head of the Philadelphia Law and Order Society, in the field for district attorney against Samuel P. Rotan, Republican, renominated. Gibboney is also on the Democratic ticket, but the Democrats, as an organization, have not held a meeting in his interest, nor has the organization officially indorsed him. The campaign has been more spirited with the street car question a leading issue.

In the State, Pennsylvania elects a Treasurer, Auditor-General and Judge of the Supreme Court. The candidates for State Treasurer are J. A. Stober, Republican; George W. Kipp, Democrat; Frank Fish, Prohibition; Ed Moore, Socialist.

New Jersey.

The fact that the eight State Senators to be chosen in New Jersey this year will each have a vote at the session of 1911 for a United States Senator to succeed Senator John Kean adds about the only State-wide interest to the election.

A full house of sixty members of the Assembly also is to be chosen.

The campaign in Virginia has been marked by unusual apathy this year. The candidates to be elected are a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, members of the General Assembly and other State officers. The Democratic ticket is headed by Judge William Hodges Mann, a Confederate veteran and strong temperance advocate, although standing on a platform which advocates local option, which the Republicans also favor. The Republican nominee for Governor is William P. Kent, who resigned the office of American consul-general to Guatemala to make the race for Governor. The Socialist Labor party has nominated A. K. Bennett for Governor.

Maryland.

The paramount issue in Maryland is the so-called disfranchising amendment to the State constitution admittedly designed to eliminate the negro as a political factor in that State. In brief the amendment contains alternative provisions by which the citizen may register and vote. First is the so-called "grandfather clause," providing for those who voted prior to 1869 and their descendants; secondly, a clause whereby a citizen naturalized prior to Nov. 2, 1909, and their descendants may register and vote. All not included within these clauses must either pay taxes on property assessed at $500 or pass an educational test. The negro having had no vote in Maryland prior to 1869, the educational test applies almost exclusively to him.

Maryland will elect a State controller, a new House of Delegates and half the Senate membership. The Legislature, if Democratic, will return Senator Isador Rayner to the United States Senate.

Ohio.

Municipal and township officers will be elected in every community in Ohio. The issues are local and pertain largely to the personalities of the various candidates, although the temperance question is a factor in several cities. The mayoralty contest in Cleveland is attracting considerable attention. Mayor Tom L. Johnson is a candidate for a fifth term on the Democratic ticket. He is opposed by County Recorder Herman C. Baehr, the Republican candidate. Mayor Johnson is advocating an equal taxation system, while Mr. Baehr is attacking the Mayor's record. The street railway question has been eliminated by a settlement now in process and no longer is an issue.

Indiana.

The temperance question is prominent in the municipal campaign held in Indiana and is a leading issue at Indianapolis. The primary elections at Indianapolis resulted in "anti-organization" candidates for Mayor being nominated by both Republicans and Democrats. The Republican can-

PRESIDENT TAFT FOUND NEW ORLEANS ENGAGING

Spent Two Days in Crescent City, and Took Deep Interest in Old French Quarter.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 1.—President Taft went to bed on his train last night a thoroughly tired-out man. His New Orleans friends kept him on the go nearly all day long. He made two speeches during the afternoon, visited the naval station and Jackson barracks, rode through the interesting old French quarter of the city and attended a sacred concert on the campus of Tulane University.

This day of strenuousness, following the activities and entertainments of Saturday, which did not end until 3 o'clock yesterday morning when supper after the opera was concluded, brought the President's stay in New Orleans to a close. His train left before daylight today for Jackson, Miss., where he will spend the day.

The President was so tired when he reached his hotel that he declined all invitations for dinner and had the meal served in his apartments with Secretary of War Dickinson as a guest.

Wouldn't Be Hurried.

The drive through the old French section of the city was immensely interesting to the President and he vetoed any suggestion of its curtailment.

The ride followed the President's attendance at the morning services of the Unitarian church, where he heard a sermon on "The Interpretation of Life" by Rev. Elmer Gilchrist. The President was accompanied through the quarter by Prof. Alcee Fortier of the Louisiana Historical Society, who pointed out the succeeding places of interest. The route was first through the old Rue Royal and thence to Jackson Square, which formerly was the Place d'Armes and is surrounded by some fine old types of French architecture.

From Jackson Square the party went to the old slave mart, to the old St. Louis Catholic Cathedral and then began a journey through Esplanade avenue and environs. Here the President's interest was centered for a time upon the ruins of the old Spanish barracks. It was at this point of the journey that Prof. Fortier suggested that the committee had not allowed time enough to go further and the President said he did not care how long the ride required, for his interest in old New Orleans was greater than in any other feature of the day and he did not wish to hurry.

At Gen. Beauregard's Home.

Returning to the Rue Royal, the President's automobile was hauled in front of some of the fine old French homes where he could look through the open doors into the patios or court yards.

Buildings which indicated the transition from the old Spanish days to the French period of New Orleans history were pointed out to the President. At the house which at one time was the home of Gen. Beauregard the President stopped for several minutes.

Mr. Taft complimented the histori-

Twelve Killed By Explosion in Pennsylvania Mine

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 1.—Twelve en were killed in the Cambria Steel ompany coal mine two miles from ere last night, as a result of what s supposed to have been a dynamite xplosion. All the dead are foreign-rs. Three men escaped with their ives by a perilous climb on life lad-ers through poisonous mine gas and alling slate, up the walls of the main haft. At the time of the explosion nly fifteen workmen, all track lay-rs, were in the mine.

The explosion occurred at sundown s the workmen were putting their ools away at the end of their day's ork. Hundreds of persons gathered t the mine entrance within an in-redibly short space of time.

A force of men, working in shifts, egan clearing the debris and fallen late in the lower levels of the mine. It was hours before the workers gained perceptible headway. When the final barrier of rocks was passed, the rescue party found twelve forms huddled close together, the bodies indicating that the men had died of suffocation.

Mine officials refused definite information as to the cause of the disaster, saying they were awaiting the arrival of the State mine examiner today.

The dead were brought to the mine mouth late yesterday. None of the bodies have been identified.

A majority of those about the mine mouth and the rescue party say the accident was undoubtedly the result of an explosion of dynamite, but mine officials deny that the explosion could have been caused by the explosive, stating all powder and blasting material was removed from the mine at the close of work Saturday.

Woman Sold Girl for $50; Then Nabbed by Police

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 1.—Charged with selling a young woman for $50 into "white slavery," Mrs. J. W. Frank, a South Side woman, was arrested here Saturday. The formal charge against her was pandering.

Mrs. Frank was trapped by the police, who had suspected her, and sent representatives of a neighboring improvement organization to see her. They contracted to buy a young woman from her for $50. The woman took the money and delivered to them a young girl. As the men left the house with the girl police officers arrested Mrs. Frank and held the girl as a witness.

Many Windows Smashed by Bomb Explosions in Chicago

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 1.—Two bombs were exploded last night in down-town buildings occupied by gambling clubs. The bombs were the thirty-second and thirty-third that have been hurled in gambling establishments within the last two years. No one was injured, but many windows were broken and store stocks were damaged.

The first bomb exploded soon after 6 o'clock in a building at 260 State street and the other followed fifteen minutes later in a building near La-Salle and Madison streets.

For two years a series of bombs have been exploded intermittenly in Chicago in gambling houses. The acts are said to be due to a quarrel between two syndicates of gamblers who operate in violation of the law.

The explosion in State street last night shook the heart of the city and windows in buildings within a radius of a block were broken and a number of buildings were damaged.

The Premier Theatre, a vaudeville house, was filled with people when the bomb was fired. The detonation frightened the audience, and men and women rushed for the street, but no one was injured.

In both cases alarms of fire was sounded, but no fire resulted from the explosions. No arrests were made.

World's Doctors to Discuss Pellagra at Columbia

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 1.—Wednesday and Thursday of this week scientists and physicians from many States and from foreign countries will meet here to discuss pellagra, the disease which recently has been found to exist, not only in the South, but in various sections of the North and West.

Originally planned as a conference of the physicians of the State, the meeting, conceived by the South Carolina State Board of Health, has been expanded until it includes a National discussion of the causes, spread and prevention of pellagra.

The United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, realizing the importance of the convention, has detailed several representatives to attend the meeting. In addition to the Southern doctors, who will read papers, medical men from the North, and From Egypt, the West Indies, England, France and Mexico will discuss the disease.

The question of forming a permanent association for the study of pellagra will be brought up at this meeting.

OWEN CASE WILL BE HEARD TODAY

ATTORNEYS BROOME AND BAKER PREPARE BRIEF IN CASE.

Same Was Forwarded on Monday and Will Be Submitted as Their Argument.

The case of R. H. Owen, plaintiff in error, against the State of Florida, defendant in error, will come on for further hearing before the Supreme Court at Tallahassee today, on motion of the Attorney-General asking the court to refuse to grant a dismissal of the appeal as applied for by counsel for plaintiff in error, October 15th.

The motion was set down for argument on the 26th of October, but the Attorney-General asked for more time. Consequently the hearing was postponed until today. The attorneys for plaintiff in error will rely upon a brief which they have forwarded to the Supreme Court, and will not be personally present to argue the case.

The Attorney-General, in his affidavit attached to the motion, contends that the writ of error was not sued out in good faith, but that it was the purpose of plaintiff in error to trifle with the process of the Supreme Court by suing out successive writs of error, and dismissing them ad infinitum. The attorneys for plaintiff in error disclaim all intention of trifling with the process of the Supreme Court, and are relying solely upon the legal and constitutional right of the plaintiff in error to have a writ of error issued as allowed by law, and the counsel for the plaintiff in error take the position that the question of good faith cannot be raised, and if the defendant, Owen, sees fit to dismiss his case in the Supreme Court, he has a perfect right under rules of the Supreme Court to do so, and that if the Attorney-General should conclude that the appeal is frivolous, he would have no other remedy than to move for a dismissal of the appeal, and this is what counsel for Owen are contending for. Counsel for Owen contend that if the Supreme Court should entertain the view taken by the Attorney-General, it would be necessary for the defendant in all criminal appeals to file an affidavit of good faith as a prerequisite to obtaining the writ, whereas Section 1698 of the General Statutes of Florida says: "All writs of error shall be tested in the name of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and shall issue on demand as a matter of right."

A DELIGHTFUL OCCASION.

Miss Annie Lou Bostick Entertained Number of Her Young Friends.

At the hospitable home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bostick, 708 North University street, Saturday night, Miss Annie Lou Bostick entertained a number of her friends in a unique Hallowe'en party, and it is needless to add that those who attended were delightfully entertained.

The guests were Misses Ida Burkhim, Fannie Burkhim, Rosa Belle Pedrick, Winnefred Pedrick, and Messrs. James Vidal, D. Davis, Larkin-Carter, Elmer McCreary, Capperman, and J. Kauffman, of New York.

As they entered the guests beheld a large bowl on one side of the piazza decorated with innumerable Japanese lanterns, from which delicious punch was served by Mrs. Bostick, mother of the hostess. The guests were then invited into the home, where all were made welcome by the clever little hostess. The parlor was decorated in white, suggestive of the occasion, and the arrangement was both unique and tasty. The room was also filled with swinging apples, and a prize of a box of candy was awarded to the person biting the highest apple. There was also a tub of floating apples, with the usual amusing contest of "diving" after them, the successful contestant also receiving a prize.

The evening passed in relating ghost stories, after which delightful refreshments were served.

SEVERAL STATES WILL ELECT GOVERNORS

didate is Samuel Lewis Shank, and his Democratic opponent is Charles A. Gauss.

The Republicans charge that the brewers are backing the candidacy of Gauss. Thomas Taggart, who opposed Gauss' nomination, lately entered actively into the campaign for his election. Taggart has vigorously denied that the brewers are using their influence for a Democratic victory in order to gain strength for the State-wide prohibition at the next session of the Legislature.

Nebraska.

No important issues are at stake in the election in Nebraska. The only State officers to be elected are those justices of the Supreme Court, two University regents for the full term and one to fill a vacancy. The nominees for Supreme Court judges are John B. Barnes, Jacob Fawcett and Samuel H. Sedgwick, Fusion, Democratic and Populist; James R. Dean, Benjamin F. Good and John A. Sullivan.

California.

With the continuance of the bribery and graft prosecutions, begun four years ago as the underlying basis, the voters of San Francisco will go to the polls for the first municipal campaign held since the new direct primaries law was enacted. Interest in the election hinges largely upon the district attorneyship, although the same issue is to some extent injected into the three-cornered mayoralty fight.

There are two nominees for District Attorney, Francis J. Heney, chosen by the Democrats in direct primary, and Charles Fickert, Republican and union labor nominee.

The mayoralty fight is between William Crocker, Republican; P. H. McCarthy, union labor, and Dr. T. B. Leland, Democrat, the present coroner.

The campaign has been a whirlwind affair from the start. Charges of corporation domination and bad faith have been hurled right and left, hot personalities have been exchanged between candidates and the usual division of public sentiment on strictly party lines is noticeable by its absence. The so-called graft prosecution advocates have been divided in their support, some of the papers picking Crocker and Henry for their ticket and others Leland and Henry.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

B. H. Dupree of Arredondo was visiting the city yesterday and made a pleasant call at this office.

Col. F. Y. Smith of Alachua is among the visitors to the city. He states that business is good and that that little city is now in a most flourishing condition.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Dell spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Liddon, in Ocala, going down in their Ford car. They made exceptional time upon their return yesterday, leaving Ocala at 4:50 and arriving in Gainesville at 7:15 o'clock a. m.

W. W. King, president of the King Lumber Company, was in the city yesterday to look after the Government contract he has here and also to see about the progress of the building. He stated that he was most agreeably surprised at the rapid progress being made by Superintendent Miles.

Married, Monday afternoon in this city, Rev. Thos. P. Hay officiating, Mr. J. W. Grimes of Jacksonville and Miss Cassie Rives, daughter of Mrs. Ella Rives, of High Springs. The groom is a well-known young man who is now making his home in Jacksonville, while the bride is a popular young lady of High Springs, where she has many friends. The happy couple left in the afternoon for Jacksonville, their future home. The best wishes of their numerous friends go with them, with the hope that their lives will be continuously happy and prosperous.

A. B. and F. R. Hartsfield left yesterday for Albany to be absent for the next few days on a most important mission. On Wednesday at noon Mr. A. B. Hartsfield will wed Miss Florence Davis of Albany and the happy couple will leave at once for other places to spend their honeymoon. Mr. Frank Hartsfield goes to act as best man and will return to this city following the ceremony. Miss Davis is well and most favorably known in this city, having on a number of occasions visited in Gainesville and was here with her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Davis, only last winter.

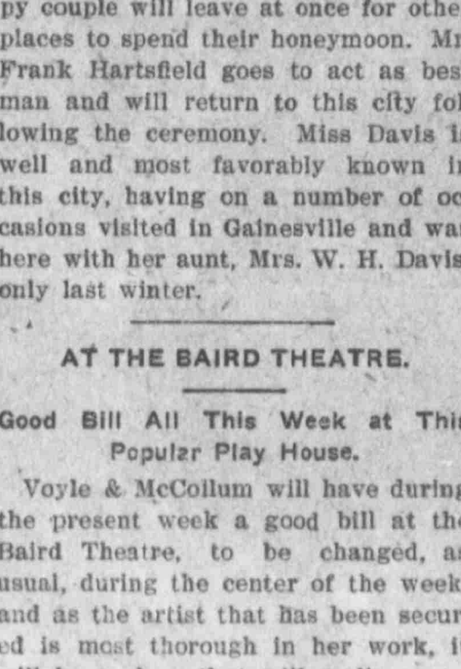
Good Bill All This Week at This Popular Play House.

Voyle & McCollum will have during the present week a good bill at the Baird Theatre, to be changed, as usual, during the center of the week, and as the artist that has been secured is most thorough in her work, it will be a show that will really prove worth several times the price of admission charged.

For the first three nights Vista



VESTER WALLACE, AT THE BAIRD

Wallace, the dancing doll, will interest in buck and wing dancing, together with illustrated songs. She has a number of high-class notices from leading papers as being a wonder in her line and this feature will prove most interesting.

The managers have reduced the price from 20 to 15 cents for adults, and this should also be appreciated by the people, who will doubtless fill the house at these prices.

The above will be given in addition to the moving pictures and illustrated songs.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic. It does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic. Ask your doctor all about this.

Women Suffer Agonies from Diseased Kidneys

And Most Women Do This Not Knowing the Real Cause of their Condition

These poor, suffering women have been led to believe that their misery of mind and body is entirely due to "ills of their sex." Usually the kidneys and bladder are responsible—or largely so. And in such cases, the kidneys and bladder are the organs, that need and must have attention.

Those torturing, enervating sick headaches, dragging pains in back, groin and limbs, bloating and swelling of the extremities, extreme nervousness or hysteria, listlessness and constant tired, worn-out feeling—are almost certain symptoms of disordered and diseased kidneys, bladder and liver.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills have, in thousands of cases, been demonstrated as remarkably beneficial in all such conditions of female organism—affording the most prompt relief and permanent benefit.

As an illustration of what these Pills will do, Mrs. P. M. Bray of Columbus, Ga., writes that she was very ill with kidney trouble, and that she is now well—and that these Pills are what cured her.

They are very pleasant to take, and can in no case, produce any deleterious effects upon the system—as syrupy, alcoholic, liquid preparations are apt to do.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill., want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder diseases to at once write them, and a trial box of these Pills will be sent free by return mail postpaid. Do it to-day.

THE AUTHOR AND THE HOME OF "'WAY DOWN ON SUWANNEE RIBBER"

(By P. M. Oliver.)

spired by the beautiful surround- of this world-renowned and ly-sung "Suwannee Ribber," upon banks in the superlatively beauti- evergreen groves of which the or of this enchanting melody posed the song, I will give to r many readers evidences gained my own eyes, and history ob- d from old settlers and former hbors of the original author, of m there has been much interest ifested in the musical and liter- world.

do not wonder that this enchanting e was the scene laid for that soul- ring melody, and the inspiration e sprang into a French girl's d to compose it. Here, looking r the placid, crystal waters of old wannee river, in the bright mellow onlight, where a million ripples sed each other across the silver en into the shadows thrown out the gigantic trees, and with a soft, rgling sound, when occasionally a sprang playfully out of the wa- , falling back with a weird sound- splash that threw hundreds of ter drops high into the air, spark- g like fire-flies, while from tiny oks came varied music from pip- frogs, with solos, duettes, trios, rtettes, quintettes, following each er in quick succession and aston- ing numbers, gradually mingling, rged into a grand and beautiful orus that swelled from the little vulets like the rich tone of a mighty e-organ, mingling with the tinkle silver bells. Such was the para- sical surrounding of a French girl eighteen happy summers, whose voted parents settled on the west nk of the Suwannee river, nearly century ago, and before the red an ceased his cruel scalping of the oneer settlers with his deadly toma- wk.

Many have been the supposed au- ors of this world-renowned and weet old melody, "Away Down On e Suwannee River." Such has been e great desire and curiosity mani- sted to discover the original author, at the proprietor of the now fam- us Suwannee Springs offered a re- ard for the author. Prof. Stephen Foster, writer of many popular negro melodies, was proposed and accepted, in the absence of more authentic information. But there never was a greater mistake or greater injustice done to the true author; for I have seen with my own eyes, and hunted over the old indigo fields and plantations, now grown up with huge forest trees and jungles, of one LaFayett, father of the girl "Marie," the author of this song. The old indigo troughs, dug from the huge live oak trees or logs, are yet to be seen, as are also trenches picked with ax and chisel in the large boulders of "rocks of ages," living witnesses, many of which lie on the surface of the ground, having been upheaved by volcanic disturbances in by-gone days. Here this Frenchman cultivated and pounded his indigo in troughs, which was sold and used for dyeing purposes. The father and all his children, save one, succumbed to a deadly malady—swamp, or African fever—leaving the poor widowed mother and daughter, Marie, broken-hearted and alone—separated by ocean from relatives—strangers in a strange land. Mother and daughter ultimately returned to France, bidding a tearful adieu to the sacred graves, and leaving the murmuring winds of old ocean to sing a sad requiem over the precious bones of departed ones.

Such are the sad facts as remembered and reported to the writer by the old settlers and neighbors of this unfortunate French family. Your readers, interested as to the precise locality, can refer to any map of Florida, and between 20 and 40 miles from the mouth of the Suwannee will discover Clay Landing, Fort Fannin, and Old Town. Just northwest of Fort Fannin are the memorable old indigo fields, troughs and other evidences, convincing of the former settlers. One of the oldest settlers and dearest friends of the French widow and beautiful daughter claimed to have received as a souvenir direct from the girl author, one of the first written manuscripts of this world-renowned song, before it ever found its way into print, which, with its pathos and soul-stirring expressions, made it such a world-wide favorite melody.

While the writer was recently camping and hunting with a party over this memorable spot, beneath huge, towering evergreens of magnolia and live oak trees, which with outstretched branches embracing each other, as if to afford a more comfortable shelter and shade for we "wandering Nimrods"

Birds of beautiful song and plumage sing,
And with wooing, graceful motion,
Stooping, make love to the rippling spring,
Which sparkled back devotion.

In appreciation of which our camp hunting party replied by chanting in sweet solos, duets, trios: "Away Down On the Swannee Ribber," which was caught up by carressing and balmy breezes from Old Ocean, and gently echoed over the placid waters of the river, and re-echoed back from the elevated banks of the opposite shore.

Of all the beautiful, limpid, life-giving rivers, which ripple "Minnehaha-like," forming in its course laughing rinkles over its placid surface, shedding crystal tears of joy in its onward course to refresh the briny waters of the great Gulf of Mexico, it is Florida's Suwannee River, for methinks

Of all God's glorious streams, there's scarce a lovelier sight,
Than this Suwannee River fair, bathed in the soft moonlight.
And sure if there is a stream on earth
nearest Heaven's gate,
It's this Utopian stream, in our fair tropical State.

There is but one conclusion conceded by visitors to Florida, as some writer once said: "He who once bathes in, and drinketh of her limpid waters, returns athirst, to bathe and drink again."

In the language of the Poet Cowper:

"One wish is to my heart most dear,
One boon at Fortune's hand I crave,
In childhood's day Fate brought me
here,
Let Fate make here my grave."

Folowing are the original words of the world-renowned song:

I.

"Way down upon de Swannee ribber,
Far, far away,
Dere's wha my heart is turning ever,
Dere's wha de old folks stay;
All up and down de whole creation,
Sadly I roam,
Still longing for de old plantation,
And for de old folks at home.

Chorus.

"All de world is sad and dreary,
Ev'ry where I roam,
Oh, darkies, how my heart grows weary,
Far from de old folks at home.

II.

"All roun' de little farm I wandered,
When I was young,
Den many happy days I squander'd,
Many de songs I sung.
When I was playing with my brother,
Happy was I,
Oh, take me to my kind old mother,
There let me live and die.

III.

"One little hut among de bushes,
One that I love,
Still sadly to my mem'ry rushes,
No matter where I rove.
When will I see de bees a-huming,
All 'roun' de comb?
When will I hear de banjo tumming,
Down in my good old home?"

M. Venable surprised his friends Saturday by driving into the city from his home at Archer in a fine automobile, and investigation developed the fact that he had purchased the machine, and "felt as big as anybody.

The machine is a Ford, Model T, twenty horse-power, and one of the handsomest yet seen here.

Mr. Venable threatened to purchase a machine in Jacksonville several days ago, but inasmuch as he is a great lover of horse-flesh, and owns a pair of the handsomest steeds in this section of the State, friends thought he was joking. But this proved to be no joke, as the machine is now in evidence.

Parisian Sage, the Hair Grower, Is Now Sold in America on Money Back Plan.

It's a mighty good thing for the women of America that Parisian Sage can now be obtained in every town of consequence.

No preparation for the hair has done so much to stop falling hair and eradicate dandruff and make women's hair beautiful as Parisian Sage.

Parisian Sage is the only certain destroyed of the dandruff microbe, which is the cause of 97 per cent of hair troubles.

These pernicious, persistent and destructive little devils thrive on the ordinary hair tonics.

Parisian Sage is such an extraordinary and quick acting rejuvenator that W. M. Johnson, who is the agent in Gainesville, guarantees it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Parisian Sage is most daintily perfumed, it is an ideal preparation, not sticky or greasy.

It is a magnificent dressing for women who desire luxuriant, lustrous hair that compels admiration.

And a large bottle of Parisian Sage costs only 50 cents at W. M. Johnson's and at leading druggists all over America. The girl with the auburn hair is on every package. Made in America by Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y., who fill mail orders, all charges prepaid.

A. C. L. IMPROVEMENTS.

Passenger Station, Now Being Enlarged, Will Soon Be Ready.

Work on the enlargement and improvement of the passenger department of the A. C. L. depot is progressing nicely under the direction of Carpenter Foreman C. C. Morris, who states that the work will be completed within the next two weeks.

While the improvement is not all that was desired, it is so marked over the old plans that it must come in for some appreciation. The rooms are being enlarged by several feet, lavatories will be installed in both white and colored waiting rooms (something which was noticeable by its former absence), additional doors are being cut, and in all the place will afford considerable more convenience than the traveling public has been accustomed to here.

When you have a cold the first thing to do is have the bowels move. Do not take anything that may constipate—and most old fashioned cough cures do constipate. Try Kennedy's Laxitive Cough Syrup. It drives the cold from the system by a free yet gentle action of the bowels; it stops the cough, it is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by all druggists.

Packers say they have not benefited by the high prices of meats in the past year. May we ask who has?

It is to be hoped that Mr. Rockefeller's million will be the bait that the hook worm has been looking for.

The Christmas edition of The Sun will be a thing of beauty. Contract for your advertising space before it is all gone.

The great thing is to be ready when opportunities come. To be ready five minutes after they have passed means bitter disappointment and failure.

We outgrow many things and manners, and customs and opinions change, but the moral law does not change, neither has society outgrown it.

To be able to say or do a kind thing and yet not do it is bad for the one who would have benefited by the kindness, but it is infinitely worse for the one who neglects to do it.

The Atlanta Constitution says the reason some people apologize for their religion is because they take it as they would necessary medicine. There is a great deal of truth in that statement.

Christmas shoppers will do their trading with those merchants whose advertisements are to be found in the Christmas edition of The Sun, which will be issued one week before Christmas day.

Sometimes work is considered monotonous. Perhaps it is but the worker need not be monotonous. Robert Burns plowed fields, but he also sang his way into the heart of humanity. Elihu Burrett worked at the glowing forge but he also mastered languages and became known as the "Learned Blacksmith." And so the list might be indefinitely multiplied. The point is that while the hands are busy the mind is free to exercise itself as it will.

The New York City election occurs today, and the result is in doubt, though we are inclined to believe that Judge Gaynor, Democratic candidate for mayor, will defeat both his opponents—Hearst, Independent-Republican fusionist, etc., and Bannard, straight-out Republican. If Judge Gaynor should be defeated, it will be by Hearst, who will without doubt have bought the office by the distribution of a tremendous sum of money to the purchasable element.

How surely wrong doing affects the innocent as well as the guilty is constantly seen. The other day a bank official was arrested for embezzlement. His brother-in-law, also an official of the bank but entirely innocent of wrong-doing, was so overcome with shame that he shot himself upon the grave of his mother. When his body was taken to the house his mother-in-law was so affected by the sight that she dropped dead by his body. If the guilty man who caused all this sorrow has any conscience he must feel the keenest remorse over his crime and the tragedy it involved.

THE BLUE-RIBBON HUSBAND.

In Chicago they have followed up the horse show, dog show and baby show idea by establishing an annual "Hubby Show." They spell it with capital letters out there, indicating they think it a capital thing, says The Savannah News. Once a year a number of wives get together, put their husbands on exhibition, figuratively, and discuss their good and bad points. There are prizes, graduated according to the merits of the entries. First prize is a blue ribbon, the same as in the horse show. The blue ribbon winner of this season's "Hubby Show" is Mr. Samuel W. VanNostrand, who has been trotting in double harness nine years and has never made a balk or kicked over the traces. Here is a summary of Sam's good points, vouched for by his wife and O. K'd. by the committee of judges:

Good-natured before breakfast.
Allows wife to carry the pocketbook.
Says wife's cooking is better than mother's.
Prompt at meals.
Good entertainer.
Adept with chafing dish.
Good judge of feminine beauty.
Generous and kind-hearted.
Enjoys home more than the club.
Almost feminine ability to sew.
Happiest when among friends.

Any bride of six weeks can say that there is nothing exceptional in that record. She can find all of those good points in her own husband without half trying, and several hundred others besides. But then it should be remembered that Sam had been in the harness for nine long years. The six-weeks' husband is nearly always a paragon of perfection, an Adonis, a prince, and all that sort of thing. But nine years are apt to make changes in ideas and smash some idols. Sammy got his blue ribbon, and deserved it, of course, or the judges wouldn't have given it to him. But didn't he make a showing of a rather insipid sort of husband? Wasn't he a sort of truck horse, content to plod and pull?

An old English saw runs: "A woman, a dog, a walnut tree; the more you beat 'em the better they be." That isn't true, of course. But we have heard it said that there are certain races of women who are never happy unless their husbands rule with an iron hand, with occasional spankings. That also is extreme and doesn't apply in this country. Still it may be asserted that women as a rule do not like colorless, mentally flaccid men as their husbands. They want spice, ginger and a little vinegar. That may account in some measure for the liking of even young girls for pickles.

A man goody-goody always is more than apt to be tiresome, unless he is a preacher, and that is to be expected of a preacher. Women themselves have a way of calling the sort "milksons" and mollycoddles." They are bored beyond words by a perpetual grin and a perpetual sissy-like acquiesence in everything. They prefer variety. Happiness is a matter of contrasts. We shouldn't know how to be happy if everything were on a dead-level of complaisancy and softness. It is necessary that there should be some roughness and some bumps to make life worth living.

The militant suffragettes in England seem to be afflicted with hysteria or an epidemic of violence. To the average man it does not look as if they would help their cause by hurling inkstands at judges and through court room windows.

NOT THE SAME JOSHUA.

"We had a county judge down my way a few years ago whose love for biblical lore was so pronounced that he couldn't resist the desire to air it on every possible occasion," said Congressman Henry D. Clayton of Alabama a few days since. "One day an old darkey was brought in from the mountain district under suspicion of maintaining an illicit still. There was no real evidence against him.

"'What's your name, prisoner?' asked the Judge as he peered at the shambling black man.

"'Mah name's Joshua, Jedge,' was the reply.

"'Joshua, eh?' said the Judge, as he rubbed his hands, 'Joshua, you say? Are you that same Joshua spoken of in Holy Writ—the Joshua who made the sun stand still?'

"'No, Jedge,' was the hasty answer, 'twarn't me. Ah'm de Joshua dat made de moon shine.'"—From Norman E. Mack's National Monthly.

The Palatka Times-Herald says Hon. W. A. Blount, candidate for United States Senator, belongs to the optimistic class. Certainly. If he had been a pessimist he would at present be practicing law before some country justice of the peace, instead of enjoying the largest law practice in the State of Florida. Optimists are builders; pessimists destroyers. Willie Blount could not be anything but an optimist. He is a big man. Pessimists are little men, and there is no place for them in such a progressive State as ours.

Politicians in the heat of party strife not infrequently say bitter and unjust things for which, when the passion born of conflict is over, they are sorry. But however genuine the regret it cannot undo the harm which such ungenerous and unjust speech may have done. All this might be avoided if politicians would but pray the prayer of the late Governor Johnson of Minnesota, "Spare me from the bitterness and the sharp passions of unguarded moments."

One fault in a man is of more consequence to him than a thousand in that of his neighbor.

THEY INJURE CHILDREN

Ordinary Cathartics and Pills and Harsh Physic Cause Distressing Complaints.

You cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given, except in emergency cases. Ordinary pills, cathartics and purgatives are apt to do more harm than good. They cause griping, nausea and other distressing after effects that are frequently health-destroying and a life-lasting annoyance.

We personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orderlies as the safest and most dependable remedy for constipation and associate bowel disorders. We have such absolute faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies contain an entirely new ingredient which is odorless, tasteless and colorless. As an active agent it embraces the valuable qualities of the best-known intestinal regulator tonics.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy. They are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness or other undesirable effects. They have a very natural action upon the glands and organs with which they come in contact, act as a positive and regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel and its dry mucous lining; remove irritation, overcome weakness, tone and strengthen the nerves and muscles, and restore the bowels and associate organs to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies completely relieve constipation, except when of a surgical character. They also tend to overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition.

There is really no medicine for this purpose so good as Rexall Orderlies, especially for children, aged and delicate persons. They are prepared in tablet form, in two sizes of packages: 12 tablets 10 cents, and 36 tablets 25 cents. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Gainesville only at our store—The Rexall Store. J. W. McCollum & Co., corner East Main and Union streets.

Pierce, are parts of a pilot house of some ocean steamship. The name "Sadie," in black letters, over white, is on the wrecked mass.

The handsome new bank building at Crescent City is completed and will open for business November 1. A public reception will be held the same date at the bank, with the wives of the stockholders receiving.

Another fraternal order has been added to the already long list in St. Petersburg. Last week the Order of Eagles was instituted by the deputy grand president. Sixty-two members were taken into membership.

Mayor Reilly of Pensacola has approved the ordinance making the closing hour of saloons 10 o'clock at night and the opening hour 5 o'clock the following morning, thus giving the bar-room men an extra hour in which to do business.

The Florida Federation of Women's Clubs will meet in Palatka on the 17th, 18th and 19th of November. Considerable enthusiasm has been aroused and the program will be a very interesting one, as many instructive addresses will be made.

While at work in the shop of Horne's Novelty Works, in Jasper, last Friday, Charles McGin was struck on the side of the head by a flying piece of wood and was picked up unconscious. Several stitches had to be taken on the side of his face. At the time of the last report he was resting very comfortably.

LICENSES COMING SLOW.

Collector Dickinson Says They Are Slower Than Last Year.

In speaking of the payment of licenses of merchants and business men throughout the county, Tax Collector Dickinson stated to a representative of The Sun that those required to pay licenses are very slow this season.

"I have only collected 325 licenses so far this season out of a possible 602," Collector Dickinson said. "This same period last year I had collected 400, which shows quite a decrease. There should be no excuse for this, as the people throughout the county appear to be more prosperous this year than last. Their products have brought more, the farmers and others are spending more, hence money should be more plentiful and license taxes easier to pay."

Collector Dickinson says these licenses must be paid, and he will be compelled to get out his "big stick" on the delinquents in a short while.

A Prominent Visitor.

Dr. John B. Love of Richmond, Va., organizer of the American Medical Association, with headquarters in Chicago, was in the city last Saturday.

Dr. Love has been here in the interest of the local organization, the Alachua County Medical Association, which is an arm of the State Medical Association, in affiliation with the National Association.

Dr. Love is an American, but has spent the greater portion of his life in Turkey, owning a fine home in Constantinople. For seven years he was a surgeon in the employ of the Turkish army, and speaks interestingly of his experience during that time.

Dr. Love visited Gainesville about twelve years ago, and expresses great surprise at the wonderful development of the city and this section since that time.

A Hair Breadth Escape.

Do you know that every time you have a cough or cold and let it run on thinking it will just cure itself you are inviting pneumonia, consumption or some other pulmonary trouble? Don't risk it. Put your lungs back in perfect health and stop that cough with Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Progress.

The secret of success to a well-educated man is having taken a "full course" of study when training the mind. The same rule will apply to an epicure. Come to the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening and we will "show you."

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

MONDAY SESSION WAS VERY LIGHT ONE

ONLY FIVE SUMMONED BEFORE CITY JUSTICE MONDAY.

Sam Cook, an Old Offender and General Gambler, Forfeited His Bond Rather Than Appear.

The regular Monday session of Mayor's Court was nothing to compare with the preceding week, still a number of offenders were present to have justice meted out to them by Mayor Davis.

Sam Cook, who is an old offender, again got into trouble with a woman who in consequence reported the matter to the policeman and Cook was relieved of a cash bond of $10. Sam failed to appear and forfeited the bond.

James Gibbs, who was totally "down and out" on Masonic street when he was found by Marshal Dell, forfeited his cash bond of $5. It was necessary for the Marshal to secure a dray to haul the man to the station on Saturday night, but on Sunday morning his tale of woe was so pitiful that he touched the goodness of the Marshal and was let off with a small bond.

N. Francisco was charged with fighting—$5 and costs.

Joe Manning, charged with reckless driving, forfeited a cash bond of $5.

Lige Williams was charged with disorderly conduct and a large number of witnesses were present to testify as to just how much of a disturbance he did raise, but as some of his witnesses were absent, Mayor Davis continued his case until next Monday with the admonition that he must have them present on this occasion.

WORD FROM LIEUT. TAYLOR.

Writes Father From Honolulu, Stating That He Is Well and Hearty.

Lieutenant H. LeRoy Taylor, U. S. A., who left San Francisco some time ago for the Philippines, where he has been assigned to duty, writes his father, H. E. Taylor, from Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, under date of October 13th, that he is "well and hearty," and that the voyage so far has been very pleasant.

Lieutenant Taylor is making the voyage aboard the Government transport Thomas, and states that he is associated with the most genial company. The distance covered is not quite half way to Manila, where the party will disembark, but inasmuch as the letter stated that the transport would remain in the port of Honolulu for several days, no definite schedule was announced as to the time the Thomas was expected to arrive at destination.

Lieutenant Taylor's numerous friends in Gainesville and throughout the State will be pleased to learn that he is enjoying good health.

A Tiny Baby

Can't tell you in words what the trouble is; but if it's complexion gets pasty, if it gets weaker and weaker, loses flesh and is cross and peevish, you can be certain that it has worms. Give it White's Cream Vermifuge, guaranteed harmless. Expels the worms and puts the baby in a healthy normal condition. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A Successful Farmer.

Among those who visited Gainesville last week were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hodge of Alachua. Mr. Hodge is not only one of the oldest and most widely-known citizens of his section of the county, taking a part in everything for the benefit of himself and neighbors, but is also a successful farmer, as has been demonstrated by the large quantities of staple productions of the farm which he harvests each season. Alachua county needs a few more like him, when we can easily be rated as the most prolific county in the State.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that on the 12th day of November, 1909, I, the undersigned, as Guardian of R. L. Shirley, a minor, will apply to H. G. Mason, County Judge of Alachua county, Florida, at Gainesville, said county, for an order to sell all the right, title and interest of said R. L. Shirley in and to the following lands, towit: S½ of SW¼, Sec. 21, Tp. 8, R. 18, lying south S. A. L. railway track, except right-of-way previously sold. Also N½ of SW¼ and S½ of SE¼ of NW¼, Sec. 21, Tp. 8, R. 18.

A. J. SHIRLEY, Guardian.

Prospective Settlers.

Messrs. Avery, Henderson and Brown, three capitalists of Fort Valley, Ga., were in the city two or three days last week prospecting in farming lands, with a view of making purchases and locating energetic farmers in Alachua county. They were driven over various sections of the county by J. W. Patton, and expressed themselves as being well pleased, declaring the lands as a whole to be the best they have visited so far. They may decide to purchase several tracts in the vicinity of Gainesville.

ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO. 10

The Man Who Retreats Before His Defeat!

By Herbert Kaufman.

Advertising isn't magic. There is no element of the black art about it. In its best and highest form it is plain talk, sane talk—selling talk. Its results are in proportion to the merit of the subject advertised and the ability with which the advertising is done.

There are two great enemies to advertising profit, and both of them are caused by ignorance of the real functions and workings of publicity.

The one is to advertise promises which will not be fulfilled, because all that advertising can do when it accomplishes most is to influence the reader of your copy to investigate your claims.

If you promise the earth and deliver the moon advertising will not pay you.

If you draw men and women to your store on pretense and fail to make good, advertising will have harmed you because it has only drawn attention to the fact that you are to be avoided.

It is as unjust to charge advertising with failure under these conditions as it would be for your neighbor to rob a bank and find yourself indicted for his misdeed. In brief, advertised dishonesty is even more profitless than unexploited deception.

The other great error in advertising is to expect more out of advertising than there is in it.

Advertising is seed which a merchant plants in the confidence of the community. He must allow time for it to grow. Every successful advertiser has to be patient. The time that it takes to arrive at results rests entirely with the ability and determination you display in the effort. But you cannot turn back when you have traveled half way and declare that the path is wrong.

You can't advertise for a week and because your store isn't crowded say it hasn't paid you. It takes a certain period to attract the attention of readers. Everybody doesn't see what you print the first time it appears. More will notice your copy the second day, a great many more at the end of a month.

You cannot expect to win the confidence of the community to the same degree that other men have obtained it without taking pretty much the same length of time that they did. But you can cut short the period between your introduction to your reader and his introduction to your counters by spending more effort in preparing your copy and displaying a greater amount of convincingness.

You mustn't act like the little girl who planted a garden and came out the next day expecting to find it in full bloom. Her father had to explain to her that plans require roots and that, although she could not see what was going on, the seeds were doing their most important work just before the flowers showed above ground.

So advertising is doing its most important work before the big results eventuate, and to abandon the money which has been invested just before results arrive is not only foolish but childish. It would be just as logical for a farmer to abandon his fields because he could not harvest his corn a week after he planted it.

Advertising does not require faith—merely common sense. If it is begun in doubt and deserted before normal results can be reasonably looked for, the fault does not lie with the newspaper or with publicity—it rests entirely upon the head of the coward who retreated before he was defeated.
